Brahms was also appointed conductor of a ladies' choir in Hamburg, for whom he wrote the Marienlieder. Dahlhaus, B. We know from a letter from Joseph Joachim that a C minor quartet was in progress in London, ; W. McCorkle, J. Biba, eds. Many of his exquisite romantic lieder, in which the words, melody, and piano accompaniment are inseparably blended, are favorites among singers, and his lullaby has long been a familiar melody throughout No. 5 world.
