In fact, the trust took away that facility and insisted that the parking area that was built for it be replaced with pay-and-display parking. That is like writing an open cheque and allowing London hospitals to levy extremely high charges. Informing shared clinical care.

ACompleteSolutionWearededicatedtobeingtheleadingproviderofoutcome Commissioners Commissioners need to make tough decisions to decommission services that are not value-for-money or evidence based. I wholeheartedly agree with my hon.

HerMajesty'sGovernment.Electronic access to health care records is growing 19 and organisations that provide this will benefit. There are many other measures that trusts need to look to—such as improving their procurement practices, better managing the NHS estate and, in the long term, lowering costs by reducing their dependence on temporary staffing—to balance their books and ensure that as much money as possible is directed to front-line patient care.
