Orders for multiple items will take longer. Some were closed with small corks not a good idea down the road as corks become less pliable.

In addition to his bags, Chitto also produces jewelry, including large-scale. Some of these brands offer different diameters, so you can choose a thinner or thicker thread according to your project. Before any type of coating is applied, the glass beads need to be thoroughly washed, dried and then heated to a temperature of around degrees. Save time! Technique and Materials are the main themes in this collection.
