I didn't totally love it, but I certainly didn't hate it and if you are looking for a paranormal romance that doesn't have the sex scenes to make you rush to church, this is your book. Faith is an amusing heroine and certainly gets Carters attention but it's not instant love and this couple have more than a few ups and downs before finally Carter steps up and claims his bride! He goes from flirty best friend to hot and heavy wannabe lover with baggage the size of Texas in under a minute.

Wow, is Konrad this protective of all the tenants, or is it just me? Their Montague-Capulet issues notwithstanding – and, in part, because of them – they form a bond that thrusts them into the middle of the showdown between humans and werewolves. Think of the Incredible Hulk. I didn't know if we were going to get that caliber.

Like I was worried he was going to hit there even though I knew him to be the romantic editions. I had read the previous books in the series so I was wondering who was going to be featured .
