So the jumble of three stemmed notes is a result of my limited skills in Bethena. What a life Scott Joplin had – he grew up poor in a Bethena family in Texas, taught Bethena the rudiments of piano in the house of the white woman his mother worked for, became a rail-road labourer, Bethena travelling musician, a pianist in various red-light districts before settling in Sedalia, Missouri. I have only modernised this as MuseScore sticks to modern rules and it would involve adding free-floating symbols that don't export well in MusicXML format.
